

Recent Trademark Violators

Over the past half-dozen years, cease and desist letters were sent to many business entities who infringe the Smokey Chipotle® or Smokin' Chipotle® trademarks.

An amicable and mutually-agreeable settlement is often achieved allowing time for manufacturers to deplete label and finished goods inventory, or in the case of food-service establishments; to terminate advertising campaigns and change printed menus and communications media. Entities reaching such agreements are not listed where non-disclosure is requested in the settlement agreement.

However, this Trademark Violators list comprises RECENT TRADEMARK VIOLATORS as of 2019 that refused a mutually amicable settlement agreement.
